Major Davis II pleads guilty for Murder of Officer Perry Renn

Davis agrees to Life Without Parole sentence for 2014 murder of on-duty IMPD officer

(Indianapolis, Ind.) Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced that Major Davis II pleaded guilty today for the murder of Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department Officer Perry Renn on July 5, 2014. As set forth in a plea agreement filed today, Davis plead guilty as charged to Murder and will be sentenced to life without parole. He is expected to be sentenced on April 27.

“Pursuant to this agreement, Major Davis II will spend the rest of his life in prison with no possibility of parole,” Prosecutor Curry stated. “This resolution meets the wishes of Officer Renn’s widow, Lynn Renn, and provides finality on the criminal matter. By this plea, the family, friends, and witnesses impacted by this violent act will avoid what would likely have been years of courtroom proceedings for discovery, trial, and possible appeals.”

Officer Renn and IMPD Officer Nicholas Gallico responded to a report of shots fired. Officer Renn was killed when he was struck by three rifle rounds fired by Davis in an exchange of gunfire with the officers.

“It is always a significant consideration in resolving a case when a defendant is willing to accept responsibility. Davis has done so by admitting to the killing of Officer Perry Renn,” Prosecutor Curry added.

Note: Prosecutor Curry will be available this morning for on-camera interviews prior to noon. To schedule an interview please contact Michael Leffler.
