BEAUTY IS IN THE ‘EYE OF THE BEHOLDER’ AT GARFIELD PARK

Photography Exhibit Opening at Arts Center

INDIANAPOLIS – The Garfield Park Arts Center’s 6th Annual photography exhibit “Through the Lens: Eye of the Beholder” sponsored by the Indiana Photographic Society will showcase more than 75 photographic works of art. The free exhibit will offer displays of digital and film formats in black and white plus color and feature techniques including infrared and high dynamic range. The images will be on display at the Arts Center March 3 through April 15. Enjoy live music and refreshments at the opening reception Saturday, March 3, from 5-7 p.m. The artists will be in attendance and many will have their photographs available for purchase.

Founded in 2006, the Indiana Photographic Society meets Wednesdays from 7-9 p.m. at the Arts Center. Membership is free and open to anyone interested in photography. For more information about the Society, call (317) 370-2560 or visit www.indianaphotographicsociety.com.

Arts for All

After viewing “Through the Lens: Eye of the Beholder,” all visitors are encouraged to visit the Arts for All studio to create their own “Chuck Close Self Portrait.” Participants will never look at themselves the same way again after this project! Imitating the style of photo-realist Chuck Close, participants will create funky self portraits using grids and symbols. This hands-on activity for the whole family is fun, free and designed to further engage participants with the “Through the Lens: Eye of the Beholder” exhibit. The Arts for All studio is open Saturdays from noon – 5 p.m. and Sundays 1 – 5 p.m. from March 3 through April 15.

The Garfield Park Arts Center is open 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays (closed Good Friday and Easter). All events are free. For more information on this and other Garfield Park events, please call (317) 327-7135, go to www.indy.gov/parks, www.qpacarts.org or visit the Arts Center page on Facebook.
