Indy Parks announces dog park makeover results

INDIANAPOLIS – With an estimated 20,000 votes total and seven different cities vying for the win, Beneful today announced the results of its Dream Dog Park makeover contest.

Indy Parks applauds Millbrook Dog Park (Raleigh, NC) for winning the $30,000 makeover, and gladly accepts the $15,000 prize for its Broad Ripple Bark Park.

“Our team extends congratulations to Raleigh and the Millbrook Dog Park. Through this contest, we asked for help and people responded in record numbers,” said Linda Broadfoot, Director of Indy Parks. “Our team is so proud of the people who voted for us, many of which voted daily and encouraged others to do the same. Thank you for supporting Indianapolis and our parks.”

Indy Parks is planning a community celebration to officially thank its dog park customers, contest supporters and the larger community. Details will be available soon.

Each year, the Broad Ripple Bark Park, which is located in Broad Ripple Park, serves more than 800 dogs and their families. It’s a great space for dogs to play and interact with other furry friends.
