

Summer in Review

It's been an incredible summer filled with a lot of great people enjoying Indy Parks' activities and programs. Here's a sample of key initiatives, their participation levels, plus highlights from each one. Our city's parks are your parks. Let's enjoy them together.

Attendance + Participation

Pack the Parks

16,018 People

Event held on July 23. Attendance more than doubled the previous Saturday's attendance of 6,393.

Concerts

29,245 People

Concerts continue through September 25 at various parks with artists such as Chubby & the All Stars, Bill Price & His Band of Skeptics, Flatland Harmony Experience, & Shakespeare in the Park.

Day
Camps

3,080 Children/Day Campers

81 Counselors, 11 Parks, 13 Different Camp Sites (Eagle Creek and Garfield Parks have two camps each).

Meals
Served

152,031 Meals Served

After School & Summer Servings Programs (May 28-July 31, 2016).

Pools

158,029 People

Swimming lessons, open swim & specialty aquatic classes.