Glenns Valley Nature Park Rental Retreat

Glenns Valley Retreat is a former residence that has been remodeled as an event center.

Downstairs, the Dining Room is 13 x 14 feet; the Fireplace Room measures 24 x 26 feet; and the Family Room is 18 x 31 feet.

Upstairs rooms are used as offices and dressing rooms for bridal parties.

Glenns Valley Nature Park and Retreat

Glenns Valley Nature Park originally was called Bluff Road Estates by its owner, Mr. James A. Himler. Mr. Himler enjoyed nature and planted many beautiful trees on these thirty acres, including a border of white pines along Bluff Road. When Mr. Himler deeded the land to the City of Indianapolis on Friday April 3, 1992, it was given the name Glenns Valley Nature Park.

Indy Parks has made several improvements to the property. A parking lot and gravel walking trails were added and the Himler residence was renovated. Part of the park was also converted into a natural area and is being maintained to encourage the growth of native Indiana plants.
