OFFICE OF SUSTAINABILITY TO HOST INDUSTRY EXPERT FORUM ON RECYCLING BEST PRACTICES

INDIANAPOLIS – The Office of Sustainability is inviting the public to join as they learn about municipal recycling best practices from industry experts. This public meeting, the second in a series aimed at determining the best options for the future of recycling in Indianapolis, will take place on June 22nd from 4:30 – 6:30 PM at the Marriott East.

Held in conjunction with the Indiana Recycling Coalition annual conference, this meeting will feature a Recycling Partnership presentation of successful municipal recycling programs across the country. Several policy and program experts will be in attendance to offer insight. Members of the public will have the opportunity to submit written comments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Residents who are unable to attend are encouraged to continue sending their suggestions to recycling@indy.gov for consideration.

The Recycling Partnership is a national nonprofit working to grow curbside recycling programs across the United States. Visit www.recyclingpartnership.org for more information.

The Indiana Recycling Coalition is a not-for-profit 501(C) 3 organization formed in 1989 to support source reduction, reuse, composting, and recycling activities in Indiana. The IRC's members include state and local governments, business, industry, not-for-profits, and individuals. More information can be found at www.indianarecycling.org.

The Office of Sustainability coordinates and collaborates on community goals to build the vision of a more sustainable Indianapolis. Under Mayor Hogsett's leadership, the Office of Sustainability is committed to implementing sustainable practices that enhance economic growth, attract and retain top talent, and strengthen vibrant neighborhoods.
