Re: Meeting Notice

There will be a meeting of the Local Homestead Credit Review Commission on Monday, June 3, 2013, at 6:00 p.m. at the Library Services Center (2450 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis, 46208). It is anticipated that the following items may be considered by the Commission:

1. Present an analysis of local revenue, including retrospective and projected illustrations of trends, highlighting the effects of economic conditions and state enacted property tax caps, and a conclusion about whether there is a need to reduce or eliminate the Local Homestead Credit.
2. What the local homestead credit is (and is not).
3. History of the local homestead credit and why a property tax credit is funded by local income tax revenue.
4. How the local homestead credit is applied to taxpayers' bills.
5. Effect of property tax caps on the application of the local homestead credit.
6. How the local homestead credit affects the budgets of civil taxing units other than the City and County.
7. Which neighborhoods and types of homes benefit from the local homestead credit despite property tax caps.
8. Whether changes in state law relating to income tax distribution and the local homestead credit are desirable.

Note: Persons with disabilities who wish to make a request for accommodations may do so by calling 327-4242. Requesting accommodations at least 72 hours before the meeting will help ensure availability.
