CITY-COUNTY SPECIAL RESOLUTION NO. , 2011

A SPECIAL RESOLUTION recognizing the Manual High School welding class for their collaboration with the Indianapolis-Marion County Forensic Services Agency to repair crime scene vans.

WHEREAS, the Forensic Services Agency needed welding work on the rear bumper step extensions of the agency's crime scene vans after Crime Scene Specialist Supervisor, Don Toth, identified that the new crime vans steel steps on the rear bumpers were too low and caused scraping during any type of incline/decline; and

WHEREAS, looking for the most efficient way to fix the steps, Mr. Toth enlisted the support of the Manual High School welding class, under the leadership of class instructor, Jason Wiley; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wiley gained the support of Manual High School Principal, Elizabeth Owens, and with participation from Greg Nance with Rolls Royce-Partners in Education, the class completed the project in three weeks; and

WHEREAS, the crime scene vans were improved and safer for the hardworking efforts of the Crime Scene Specialists of the Forensic Services Agency in their effort to provide the best service to the criminal justice community in Indianapolis and Marion County; now, therefore:
