Julius Gordon to serve 55 years for 2015 murder, attempted robbery

Gordon found guilty at trial of murdering John Kinsey, Jr.

(Indianapolis, Ind.) Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced today that Julius Gordon has been sentenced for the March 14, 2015, murder of John Kinsey, Jr. In February, a jury reached a guilty verdict after a three-day trial. Kinsey's body was found in a parked car on the city's Westside. Gordon shot and killed Kinsey during an attempted robbery.

Haley McKibben also faces a charge of Conspiracy to Commit Robbery for her alleged role in the attempted robbery. The next hearing in that matter is set for March 24 at 10:00 a.m. in Criminal Court 1.
